

Living and Working in Germany

Germany offers attractive opportunities for Thai healthcare professionals. This overview provides information on salary, quality of life, working conditions, and integration support. Discover the opportunities for your career in Germany.

by Holger Ranft-Rößler

Overview of Opportunities

1 Attractive Salary

Germany offers healthcare professionals a competitive income. In addition, you will enjoy comprehensive social security.

2 High Quality of Life

Experience modern comfort, safe environments and diverse leisure opportunities in German cities.

3 Professional Development

Benefit from excellent working conditions and numerous training opportunities in the healthcare sector.

4 Integration Assistance

Comprehensive support facilitates your start. We will help you settle in Germany.

Attractive Salary and Social Benefits

Gross Salary	approx. 3,000 Euros
Health Insurance	approx. 219 Euros
Pension Insurance	approx. 279 Euros
Unemployment Insurance	approx. 36 Euros
Care Insurance	approx. 45.75 Euros
Net Income	approx. 2,250 Euros

As a care worker in Germany, you receive an attractive salary. After deducting taxes and social security contributions, you are left with a substantial net income.

High Quality of Life and Cost of Living

Housing

In medium-sized cities, a 1-2 room flat costs around 600-800 Euros. This includes utilities such as electricity and water.

Mobility

A monthly ticket for public transport costs between 60 and 90 Euros. This allows you to conveniently use buses and trains.

Food

Budget around 200-300 Euros per month for groceries. Germany offers a wide selection of fresh and affordable products.

Good Working Conditions and Further Training

1

Regulated Working Hours

Enjoy fair working hours with regulated breaks. This promotes your work-life balance.

2

Employee Rights

Your employment contract protects your rights. You benefit from comprehensive legal protection measures.

3

Training Opportunities

Take advantage of a wide range of further training opportunities. Continuously develop your skills.

4

Specialisations

Deepen your expertise in various care areas. Find your professional niche.

Integration and Support

Housing Search

We support you in finding suitable accommodation and with official registrations.

Language Courses

Improve your German skills in special courses. Get to know the German culture.

Advice

Receive help with legal and financial questions. We are here to advise you.

Networks

Make contacts in international nursing staff networks. Find new friends and colleagues.